

Criminal Investigations Division

C.I.D.

Criminal Investigations Division (CID)

The investigative body of the Locust Grove Police Department is the Criminal Investigation Division (CID). This Division is charged with the responsibility to conduct preliminary and follow-up investigations of all crimes against persons and property; to maintain found/recovered property and evidence.

Criminal Investigation Process:

Typically when a crime is reported to the Police Department, it is forwarded to the CID for review by the sergeant. Based upon criteria established by the Police Department, the case may or may not be assigned for further investigation. The reason some cases are not assigned is primarily due to the lack of sufficient leads or evidence for the detective to pursue. Of those cases that are assigned, the assigned detective will contact the complainant as soon as he or she is able.

If you have been a victim of a crime in the City of Locust Grove, you are encouraged to contact Henry County Dispatch at (770) 957-5200 or call 911, to make a report.

Contact CID:

If you have made a report, but have not been contacted by a detective, you may check the status of your case by calling or emailing the sergeant assigned to the division.

If you already know the name of the detective assigned to your case, you may call or e-mail the detective directly using the information provided below. If the detective is not available, you may leave a message and you should be contacted soon after your message is received.
